Jesus chose to build his ministry with business people, not religious people. This book points out many ways that the business community is essential to the church (not just as a source of financial donations).

Recommended for Christian business professionals, owners and employees, as well as pastors to such.

was written to expose four “unbiblical misbeliefs”: There is a God-ordained division between clergy and laity. The Church is called to operate primarily inside a building often referred to as the temple. People involved in business cannot be as spiritual as those serving in traditional Church ministry.

Now all Christians are anointed, chosen for a specific purpose in furthering God's Kingdom (1 John 2:20).

"Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us is God, who also has sealed us and given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee" (2 Corinthians 1:21-22).
