Isra Iliyyat Islam

There is no clear evidence regarding the exact manner by which biblical and Talmudic themes entered Islamic literature. Muslim sources indicate a number of individuals who converted to Islam from Judaism among the first generations of Muslims and were transmitters of Isra'iliyyat. These include such names as Ka'b al-Ahbar and Abd Allah b. Salam. Some sources also suggest that "Muslims studied with practicing Jews," though the nature and extent of such coeducation is not clear.
